Suburbanites Defeat District Independent Team by 33 to 2.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Rockville, Md., March 22.—The baseball team of Glen Echo, this county, played its first game of the season yesterday afternoon, when it crossed bats with the Concord team. The game resulted in an easy victory for the Glen Echo team by the score of 33 to 2. The game was called in the eighth inning on account of darkness. The feature was the excellent twirling of E. Riley, of the Glen Echo team, who struck out fourteen men and allowed but two hits.

The following is the line-up of the team: Catcher, Norman Ehrmantraut; pitcher, Edward Riley; first base, Cissell Husbard.

JOHNSON FIGHTS SHY

Shuns Agreements to Meet Ketchell and Langford.

MAY FEAR THE OUTCOME

Champion Afraid of a Knock-out Which Would Destroy His Chance to Make a Fortune-Has Agreed to Accept McIntosh's Offer of $50,000 to Meet Jeffries-O: er Gossip.

New York, March 22.-Jack Johnson has declared off his proposed battle with Stanley Ketchell, because the latter's manager, Willus Britt, failed to cover the negro's $5,000 forfeit at noon on Saturday. In spite of the fact that Britt is in Chicago trying to induce Johnson to give Ketchell another chance, they will not meet in the ring, for the excellent reason that Johnson has decided that Ketchell is just as dangerous as Sam Langford.

Johnson is matched to fight twenty counds with Langford before the National Sporting Club of London on May 24. Articles were agreed upon some time igo, and both pugilists accepted $500 expense money. Johnson does not care to take a chance with Langford under the changed conditions, for he fears the lat-ter might knock him out in jig time, and therefore destroy a chance to make a fortune in easy money.

Breaks Word of Honor.

Johnson will break his word of honor well as overlook his signature, but that apparently cuts no figure with him, so long as he does not run up against Langford's dangerous punches. Ketchel is an even greater puncher than Lang-
